Dear Parents and Carers,

Further to the joint letter I sent out with our CEO, Jonny Uttley, yesterday evening, as things stand, Malet Lambert will be open to all year groups tomorrow, Thursday, 19 March for all pupils who are fit and well and not self-isolating with their families as per the government advice.

We have a number of staff following guidelines for self-isolation, but have worked hard to ensure that all affected classes are covered accordingly tomorrow. If the staffing situation changes overnight, we will inform you of our plans immediately.

Of course, we are aware of the Prime Minister's updated speech this evening regarding schools for next week and will be working hard on Thursday and Friday to ensure that everything is in place.

We will update you in full tomorrow.

Yours sincerely,

Patrick Sprakes
