Dear Parent/Carer,

At Malet Lambert we always encourage our pupils to support charitable causes and to experience different types of days, whilst always maintaining our high standards and academic focus.

We also place great emphasis upon listening to the views of all our pupils and to that end we will be holding a non-uniform day with a difference on Friday 24th March to raise money for Red Nose Day.

We are inviting all of our pupils and staff to come dressed in either casual clothing containing something red or in traditional, appropriate pyjamas or in a onesie. We are asking that all pupils pay 50p for this day and that if possible they also bring a little money to get involved in some other fundraising activities, including the chance to throw sponges at myself and other willing staff, in the stocks.

We look forward to experiencing a great learning day, following our normal lessons, with fantastic attendance in order that we can raise lots of money for a great cause. A number of staff have also agreed to donate sizeable sums of their own money for every form group that achieve 100 % attendance on the day, so let's really go for it.

This letter will go out via email and through a texted link as well as being read to pupils and then handed out as a physical copy.

In the event of any questions or queries please contact your child's pastoral leader in the first instance.

Yours faithfully

Mr Fenna
Deputy Head
